On motion the report was accepted and referred to the Auditing Committee.

The appointment of the following committees was announced by the President:

Nominating: Professors Schilling, Nutting, Johnston.

Auditing: Professors Elmore, Bruce.

Social: Professors Hart, Richardson, Tatlock.

The Secretary's report consisted chiefly of statistics of membership for the past year, and notice of the election of 36 new members.

It was moved and seconded that the nominating committee be made permanent, one member to be elected each year. By vote of the members present further consideration of the motion was deferred until Saturday morning.

The report of the nominating committee was read and accepted, and by vote the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President: C. G. Allen.

Vice-Presidents: A. P. McKinlay, B. O. Foster.

Secretary: A. G. Kennedy.

Treasurer: W. L. Schwartz.

Executive Committee: The above-named officers and R. M. Alden, R. Schevill, E. A. Wicher, C. Paschall.

The Auditing Committee reported that the accounts and vouchers of the Treasurer were correct and in order. On motion the report was accepted and approved.

The Association then voted that the nominating committee shall consist henceforth of three members, shall be appointed by the President, and each member shall hold office for three years, the respective terms of office to expire in successive years. In case of the absence of any member of the committee from the annual meeting, the President shall fill the vacancy with a temporary appointment. To initiate this system, the incoming President shall select two members from the nominating committee of the present session and add a third, indicating the terms of office of these members as of 1, 2 and 3 years.

On motion a vote of thanks was extended to the University Club for hospitality and the Treasurer was authorized to pay $10.00 to the "Christmas Box" for the waiters of the Club.

It was also voted that the President be authorized to appoint each year certain members whose duty it should be to carry to the American Philological Association and the Modern Language Association of America the greetings of the Philological Association of the Pacific Coast, the choice to be made from those members likely to be in attendance at the annual meetings of the Eastern associations.

By motion the President was authorized to appoint a committee of three to represent the Association and assist it in keeping in touch with the movement started at the last annual meeting of the Modern Language Association of America for the promotion of the study of medieval Latin literature. It was further voted that the Philological Association of the Pacific Coast recommend the appointment of Professor E. K. Rand as the American representative on the committee having in charge the publication of a new medieval Latin dictionary.

Professor R. M. Alden called the attention of the members to the desirability of coöperating with and supporting the Modern Humanities Research Association.

The attendane at the four sessions numbered 50, 50, 40 and 38 respectively.

ARTHUR G. KENNEDY, Secretary.
